

THE JOFFREY BALLET

JUNE 28-29, 2025

TPAC's Jackson Hall | Running Time: To Be Determined | *Recommended for ages 12+

In a rare Nashville appearance, the renowned Joffrey Ballet performs an adaptation of Hans Christian Andersen's timeless fairy tale, Princess and the Pea, followed by Cathy Marston's dreamscape inspired by Richard Wagner's blissful Siegfried Idyll, composed after his son's birth. The program concludes with 15 virtuosic dancers in Under the Trees' Voices, a masterpiece of beauty and dynamic intensity, set to Ezio Bosso's cinematic Symphony #2.

To ensure an enjoyable experience for everyone, we recommend that children be 12 and up. Shows are often more than two hours long and are not always ideal for younger children, however, it is up to you to decide if your child will be able to sit through a full production. Everyone, regardless of age, requires a seated ticket. There are no lap seats.*
